Tasting notes

De Iuliis Pecorino 2021

Region

Hunter Valley

The wine

Pale straw.

This beautiful fresh young wine shows soft fruits, florals, and dried herb aromatics. With a slightly heavy textural mouthfeel, the palate is long and delicious.

More information

The Pecorino grape originates from the Marche and Abruzzo regions of Italy. According to local legend the grapes got their name because the local sheep were known to eat them from the vines.

We were one of the first to plant the variety in the Hunter Valley.

Cellaring

It will be interesting to see how this wine develops with time in the bottle, but we think that this is perfect to drink now. Enjoy!
