

TEST YOUR WINE KNOWLEDGE

General Wine Knowledge

1. Which grape variety is most widely planted in the world?
A. Cabernet Sauvignon B. Merlot C. Chardonnay D. Shiraz
2. What is the process of removing impurities from wine called?
A. Filtration B. Decanting C. Racking D. Chaptalisation
3. What is the term for a wine made from a single grape variety?
A. Blend B. Varietal C. Fortified D. Cuvée
4. Which country is the largest producer of wine in the world?
A. Italy B. France C. Spain D. United States
5. What is the main type of grape used in Champagne?
A. Pinot Noir B. Chardonnay C. Sauvignon Blanc D. Riesling

Hunter Valley and Australian Wine

6. Which Australian wine region is known for its high alcohol and tannin Shiraz wines?
A. Barossa Valley B. Margaret River C. McLaren Vale D. Hunter Valley
7. Which grape variety is widely planted in the Hunter Valley and known for producing vibrant, aromatic white wines?
A. Semillon B. Chardonnay C. Riesling D. Sauvignon Blanc
8. Where is the annual Hunter Valley Wine Show judged each year?
A. Brokenwood B. Singleton Army Barracks C. Hunter Resort D. Pokolbin Hall
9. Where were the first vines that came into Australia planted?
A. Barossa B. McLaren Vale C. Hunter Valley D. Sydney Botanic Gardens

De Iuliis Wines

10. In which Australian state is the De Iuliis winery located?

A. New South Wales B. Victoria C. South Australia D. Tasmania

11. Which grape variety is a signature of De Luliis Wines?

A. Shiraz B. Chardonnay C. Semillon D. Vermentino

12. What is the name of the iconic De Luliis wine that has gained international recognition?

A. LDR Vineyard B. The Patriarch C. The Matriarch D. Estate Semillon

13. What does LDR Vineyard stand for?

A. Long Driveway Road B. Light Dry Red C. Love Dark Reds D. Lovedale Road

14. Which wine region in the Hunter Valley is home to the De Luliis winery?

A. Pokolbin B. Lovedale C. Broke D. Cessnock

Wine and Food Pairing

15. Which type of wine typically pairs well with red meat?

A. White wine B. Red wine C. Sparkling D. Dessert wine

16. What is the general rule of thumb for pairing wine with food?

A. The wine should be sweeter than the food

B. The wine should be stronger than the food

C. The wine should complement the food

D. The wine should overpower the food

17. Which type of wine is traditionally paired with sushi?

A. Red wine B. White wine C. Sparkling D. Dessert wine

18. What is the term for the aroma of wine reminiscent of earthy or mushroom-like scents?

A. Fruity B. Floral C. Earthy D. Spicy

TEST YOUR WINE KNOWLEDGE ANSWERS

1. Which grape variety is most widely planted in the world? C. Chardonnay
2. What is the process of removing impurities from wine called? A. Filtration
3. What is the term for a wine made from a single grape variety? B. Varietal
4. Which country is the largest producer of wine in the world? A. Italy
5. What is the main type of grape used in Champagne? B. Chardonnay
6. Which Australian wine region is known for its high alcohol and tannin Shiraz wines? A. Barossa Valley
7. Which grape variety is widely planted in the Hunter Valley and known for producing vibrant, aromatic white wines? A. Semillon
8. Where is the annual Hunter Valley Wine Show judged each year? B. Singleton Army Barracks
9. Where were the first vines that came into Australia planted? D. Sydney Botanic Gardens
10. In which Australian state is the De Luliis winery located? A. New South Wales
11. Which grape variety is a signature of De Luliis Wines? A. Shiraz
12. What is the name of the iconic De Luliis wine that has gained international recognition? A. LDR Vineyard
13. What does LDR Vineyard stand for? D. Lovedale Road
14. Which wine region in the Hunter Valley is home to the De Luliis winery? A. Pokolbin
15. Which type of wine typically pairs well with red meat? B. Red wine
16. What is the general rule for pairing wine with food? C. The wine should complement the food
17. Which type of wine is traditionally paired with sushi? C. Sparkling
18. What is the term for the aroma of wine reminiscent of earthy or mushroom-like scents? C. Earthy